ANIMAL CREATINE

Keep focused on the hard work, knowing you'll be able to recover with Animal Creatine. It's powered by the most readily absorbed creatine monohydrate available. Creatine helps to fuel muscles, serving as a high-energy bond in muscles and nerve tissue to maintain ATP levels during muscular contraction. Clinical research has shown that increased creatine levels in the body also helps to promote optimal workout recovery, increased lean muscle growth, and delayed onset of muscle fatigue.†

IRONCLAD QUALITY & GUARANTEE
