This bulk is not for consumer sale. It is to be suitably repacked and relabeled for distribution in retail packages as soon as received. We cannot assume any responsibility for bulk goods that are left in bulk containers or subsequently packaged in any container unsuitable to the product. Expiration date to be determined based on your storage conditions, packaging components and stability studies.

No responsibility is assumed, under the provisions of the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of 1938, for any subsequent label statements under which this product may be labeled. We guarantee that the contents of this container conform to specifications and were in good condition when shipped. If, upon opening, the contents are found unsatisfactory in any particular manor, we must be notified immediately in writing as our responsibility ceases upon removal of goods from the original container or 10 days after receipt of this shipment by our customer.
