Caution: This product may contain traces of grape seed extract, which may cause allergic reactions in individuals with severe allergies to grapes. If you experience any of the following symptoms, discontinue use immediately and consult your physician: hives, itching, swelling, difficulty breathing, or other allergic reactions.

Resveratrol is a polyphenol naturally found in the skin of red grapes. It has been shown to help improve blood circulation, help to support healthy cholesterol levels, and help to support a healthy inflammatory response. It also has been shown to have antioxidant effects, which may help to protect cells from damage caused by free radicals. Resveratrol also has been shown to have anticancer effects.

SUGGESTED USAGE: As a dietary supplement, take 1 Vcap® twice daily. Consider taking this product in combination with NOW® CoQ10, Pycnogenol® and Tru-C BioComplex™.
