This one of a kind, multi-functional supplement is designed to help you maximize your workouts and recuperate from them. Re-Feed is stacked with a powerful protein system plus potent herbal blends to trigger anabolic signals, combat catabolism, and help you to rest and maximize recovery when you need it most!*

HARDCORE PROTEIN BLEND:

For maximum muscle growth, your body needs to stay fueled with a constant flow of anabolic, muscle building ingredients. Re-Feed is loaded with a 25 gram blend of micellar casein and calcium caseinate protein for an ideal, sustained amino acid release throughout the night.*

ANABOLIC COMPLEX:

Re-Feed features an anabolic complex to fuel anabolism and performance. The 5 grams of L-Leucine and 600 milligrams of Fenugreek work together to prime your muscles and support anabolic factors in the body.*

MUSCLE RECOVERY SYSTEM:

Recovery is essential to building lean mass and supporting a rock hard physique. The harder you train, the more your muscles need to recuperate. This system includes 5 grams of recovery-supporting glutamine along with essential vitamins and minerals that enhance recovery and fuel your muscles.
