NOW® Taurine is a free-form amino acid that participates in a variety of metabolic processes. Taurine is a neurotransmitter, a neuromodulator and is involved in glucose uptake.* It is found in meats, fish, milk and eggs, but not in vegetable proteins, so supplementation is especially important for vegetarians. Look for other fine NOW® amino acid supplements on an empty stomach.

SUGGESTED USAGE: As a dietary supplement, take 1/4 level teaspoon one or more times daily as needed, preferably
