NOW® Raw Bee Propolis is collected from domestic and overseas beekeepers and is one of the richest sources of bioflavonoids known. Bees collect the propolis from the resin of certain select trees and use it to line the hive. This substance is believed to be responsible for the sterile, healthy state of the beehive colony. The name "propolis" is derived from the Greek words "pro" which means "before" and "polis" which means "city". This
