ResVitale™

Astaxanthin

Found in salmon, trout and other red-pink marine life, this carotenoid helps supply dramatic cellular protection against oxidative stress. Astaxanthin is oil soluble, a unique trait allowing access into the central nervous system's cellular structure to support brain and eye health. Drawn from one of the richest known natural sources – microalgae Haematococcus pluvialis – for potency and efficient assimilation.*

PURE YOUTH ACTIVATING™*

Astaxanthin 8 mg

*Astaxanthin marine antioxidant helps support healthy aging, mobility and immune system

*AstaPure™ breakthrough microencapsulated beadlet technology for superior delivery

THE ART An alliance of science and nature delivers one of the world's most vital marine carotenoid antioxidants. Advanced CO2 extraction and a patented closed cultivation process ensure purity.*

THE BENEFITS Astaxanthin helps neutralize free radicals. With superior antioxidant strength, this carotenoid helps support DNA protection to promote healthy vision, skin, cardiovascular function and cognition.*

THE PROOF Studies on anti-aging have uncovered astaxanthin's unique ability to cross the blood-brain barrier. Clinical evidence suggests this powerful antioxidant may support and maintain a healthy central nervous system.*
