Olive Leaves contain a number of compounds, mainly phenols and lignans, that protect the plant from environmental stress and confer health benefits when consumed. Oleuropein, one of the best known active constituents of Olive Leaf, has been endowed with many health promoting properties linked to its antioxidant activity.*

SUGGESTED USAGE: Shake well before using. As a dietary supplement, take 2 droppersful 1 to 2 times daily as needed. Consider taking this product in combination with NOW® Colostrum, Faspir-All™ and Immune Renew™.
