Maca (Lepidium meyenii) is grown at high elevations in the Andes region of central Peru. It has been used for centuries by indigenous Peruvians as a food source, as well as for increasing stamina and energy. More recent scientific studies have demonstrated that Maca supports hormonal balance and both male and female reproductive health.*

SUGGESTED USAGE: As a dietary supplement, mix 1 level teaspoon daily into water or your favorite beverage. Consider taking this product in combination with NOW® Testodack 100™, Tribulus and ENERGY.
