

Pluit-based beauty for even skin tone+

Maxi-Skin® Rescue extracts the best from nature. Researchers learned from French farmers that a specific variety of cantaloupe melon had a particularly long life compared to other melons. They extracted and concentrated this melon ingredient via a green and natural patented process. This ingredient includes superoxide dismutase (SOD), an antioxidant enzyme, and naturally occurring CoQ10, glutathione and carotenoids, +

This product also includes 3 additional ingredients that possess antioxidant properties:

Plench Grane Seed Extract Flavanol Monomers are polyphenols that help protect the skin from oxidative stress. Zinc cithate Skin has the third highest abundance of zinc in the body of all tissues and is required for skin cell renewal **

Vitamin C Supports protection of dermal cells and helps maintain skin cell integrity.
