Three distinct, organically grown forms of Echinacea are crafted into an innovative NUTRILITE[®] supplement which supports the body's natural resistance. Careful attention was given to preserve Echinacea's natural chemistry, knowing this would ensure a better formula. Immunity Echinacea includes fresh plant and roots, harvested at their prime and carefully processed for our unique formula. This product is standardized to contain acid and alkalinites and has been made using a patented process. The result is a formula that you will be glad to take when you need it the most.
