WHAT IS TRIBAL ENDURANCE?

Natural Force Tribal Endurance is a modern version of the age old endurance drink known as ISKATE. Although it is hard to pronounce (ISS-kee-ah-tay), this incredibly refreshing drink is extremely effective and has been used for centuries by a tribe of super athletes known as the Tarahumara. This tribe of ultra-runners from the copper canyon in Mexico mix chia seeds, honey and water into a brew that they use to fuel their runs of up to 200 miles! That is running for two days straight.. talk about some serious endurance! The power of this drink lies in the carbohydrates, omega-3s and amino acids that help prolong physical endurance to a remarkable level. We have taken this formula and made it even better, by adding pink Himalayan sea salt and the coveted superfood royal jelly! Our Tribal Endurance is great for endurance training, triathlons, obstacle course racing and even a brutal workout session at the gym.
