Scientists have discovered some of nature's most powerful plant-based nutrients, and they're found inside the cocoa pod.

They're called cocoa flavanols, and numerous scientific studies have demonstrated that they promote healthy blood flow from head to toe†.

The cocoa flavanols in CocoaVia® cocoa extract supplement help your cardiovascular system deliver oxygen and nutrients throughout your body. When your blood is circulating properly, vital organs from your head to your toes get the oxygen and nutrients they need to help you feel and stay your best.

CocoaVia® supplement is backed by more than two decades of scientific research by leading universities around the world and the scientists at Mars, Incorporated. They developed the patented Cocoapro® process, which gently extracts cocoa flavanols in their purest form, from the highest-quality cocoa beans available.
