Evening Primrose Oil (EPO) provides a natural source of important essential fatty acids. Essential fat supplements can help offset the high consumption of saturated and trans fatty acids crowding our food supply.[†] The nutrients found in EPO play a major role in heart, skin, joint, nerve and overall health.[†] Our 1,300 mg EPO product provides a higher dosage formula for those looking to decrease the number of softgels taken per day of a lower dosage EPO product for therapeutic use.
