ENPULSE is used by male and female athletes during training, competition and recovery to immediately enhance natural testosterone levels, reduce production of estrogen, and increase sex drive & performance.*

ENPULSE is the first hormone support supplement to combine testosterone boosting ingredients with aromatase inhibitors and sex-hormone binding agents designed to increase natural testosterone levels.* The unique ingredients in ENPULSE work together to promote an anabolic and anti-estrogenic environment that results in increased libido, muscle growth, and the burning of stored fat.*

HELIX-24 is a dietary supplement used by male and female athletes during training, competition and recovery to immediately enhance endogenous (natural) growth factors.*

HELIX-24 is the first 24 hour growth factor release formula ever created.* It is scientifically designed to activate anabolic growth 24 hours a day at the gene level by increasing growth factor production. The ingredients in HELIX-24 help you overcome your genetic limitations by activating natural cellular processes that trigger dramatic increases in muscle size and strength.

The Sustained-Release HELIX-24 formula targets the many pulses of growth that occur all day long, amplifying the peak and duration of each secretion. This results in more total daily growth factor release than those supplements targeting only night-time growth factor release. Daily elevation in total growth factors lead to dramatic growth in muscle size and strength.*

ANABOLIC PRESCRIPTION is a dietary supplement used by male and female athletes during training, competition and recovery to immediately enhance natural anabolic hormone levels, gene expression, and stimulate muscle growth.*

ANABOLIC PRESCRIPTION is the most powerful stack ever created.* It is the ultimate combination of the two most powerful hormone support supplements available on the market today: ENPULSE and HELIX-24. Our team of leading scientists tested the combination of ENPULSE and HELIX-24 and found INCREDIBLE increases in anabolic hormone levels, gene expression, and muscle growth. These changes were more than the significant gains noted when taking ENPULSE or HELIX-24 alone and can only be attributed to the synergistic effect of these unique formulae on human hormone and muscle gene physiology.

"I recommend ANABOLIC PRESCRIPTION for creating functional muscle gains fast"
