ALWAYS USE PROTECTION

Organ Shield™ is a unique blend of antioxidants, polyphenols, and phytosterols explicitly formulated to support your body's vital organs against the negative side effects of strenuous training.

This free radical fighting complex can help support and promote healthy hepatic (liver), prostatic (prostate), and cardiovascular (heart) function already within healthy range.

This blend of specific antioxidants, flavonoids, and phytonutrients scavenges free radicals, supporting healthy cell development and damaged cell repair. 365 days a year, whether on-season or off-season, this is a must for any serious athletes' arsenal!†
