

Directions: Take 20 or more drops under the tongue or in juice/water twice daily. Shake well before use.

Ashadrene is the only wild, organic, whole food ashwagandha root extract available with the full complement of powerful active ingredients, including adrenal supporting plant steroids, withanolides. Unlike other ashwagandha products, this is a concentrated extract, which makes it more potent than merely ground roots. It is complexed with raw 3x royal jelly for extra potency. Support your overall health and your natural energy response with Ashadrene.*
