Coenzyme Q10 is a crucial component in the cellular energy production cycle. Research indicates that CoQ10 may support normal heart function, provide antioxidant protection and maintain gum health. CoQ10 also aids the liver and brain. Source Naturals highly stable, vegetarian softgels are made from carrageenan, a natural polysaccharide obtained from edible red seaweed. CoQ10 is very sensitive and can degrade in light. For added protection, we use a dark softgel.*
