

Your Recovery time just got a LOT FASTER!!

The ABC's of Recovery – we haven't invented anything new here... this formula has existed in the gym bags and trainers bag of athletes for decades. It's what professional athletes, Olympians and celebrity trainers have always used to make sure recovery and endurance is at peak performance at all times. Fast and slow release carbohydrates, the perfect 4:1 ratio between those carbohydrates and micro-filtered whey isolate protein, replenishing main performance nutrients like creatine, arginine, Citrulline Malate, cell re-hydrating volumizers, absorption transporters, antioxidants, high dosage Glutamine, BCAA's and Essential Amino acids.

We at NRG-X Labs didn't invent anything new... but what we did do; for the first time ever, we put all this time tested technology together into ONE complete formula that mixes great and taste even better... lets face it when it comes to your performance in and out of the gym you don't want to trust the latest fad. You want something that is time tested, rock solid, university studied and re-studied and anvil simple... that's the ABC's of recovery in one product – that's Raptor Recovery™ Black Label.

- Awesome taste and instant mixability PLUS it'll stay mixed with no clumps in your water bottle.
- 4:1 Ratio of Carbohydrates and Micro-Filtered Isolate Protein – this ratio is the perfect blend that your body needs after or during extreme workouts!
- Clinical studies showed it most strongly regenerated energy needed for anaerobic performance – AKA: Quick twitch muscle energy, which is needed for power movements in weight training, sprinting, hockey, football, baseball, golf etc.
- Enhances the body's ability to generate and regenerate ATP for SLAMMING muscle performance!
- Facilitates VITAL oxygen delivery to working muscle tissue. Increasing V02 Max!!
- Minimize post-exercise muscle soreness, rebuild muscle tissue and restore muscle glycogen
- 100% Gluten-Free, Aspartame Free and MSG Free.

Stop cheating yourself out of hard earned gains! Use Raptor Recovery™ within the first 30 minutes after your workout and SEE the results. Plus, all the same technology that aids your body in recovery also will help with endurance, increased V02 Max (your bodies ability to process oxygen) and focus – Raptor Recovery™ is great to slip in your water bottle and sip on throughout your
