

WEIGHT MANAGEMENT

Thermo Blend

Thermogenesis is the process of converting calories to heat. When the body's sympathetic nervous system is stimulated metabolic rates rise, increasing energy and releasing stored fat. This release of fatty acids generates heat to further break down fat cells and convert calories.

Our premium ingredients are formulated to increase metabolism and energy, and promote fat burning. Along with a balanced diet and regular exercise, NatureWise Thermo Blend is a great way to complement your overall fitness plan.*

Live
Healthy.
Live
Happy.

At NatureWise we believe that when you increase health & happiness in the world, it benefits everyone. From our products and customer support to the way we give back, it's all part of our mission to help people live healthier, happier lives.

GOOD FOR PEOPLE

Our products don't just benefit our customers. Every NatureWise purchase you make generates a 1-for-1 donation of life-changing nutrients to a child or mother in need for an entire year. Together we're making a world of difference.

We care about our planet's health, too. That's why we source our ingredients responsibly and package our products using only recycled materials and renewable energy. We are also a leading supporter of PINA, the Permaculture Institute of North America.
