20 PACKETS - DIETARY SUPPLEMENT

Immune Response Pack

3-IN-1

Immune Boost Power

Don't just cover up cold or flu symptoms; use our Immune Response Pack to support your body's ability to fight off sicknesses. Recommended by physicians to support the body in combating viral, bacterial or immune system issues the instant symptoms arise. The best time to stop a cold or flu is when you begin to feel symptoms like sore throat, sinus pressure and congestion. Professional Botanicals' Immune Response Pack utilizes a multi-formulation approach, creating a synergistic effect of powerful ingredients known to support immune system function. Each packet contains a combination of Professional Botanicals' top sellers including Attack, Viral Aid and Co-Resist formulas.

USAGE: Take two packets upon rising, take one packet every 2 hours you are awake. Take two packets at bedtime. Continue for two days.
