Studies have shown branched chain amino acids to be effective in curbing muscle degradation during intense exercise.† This formula may help delay fatigue during strenuous activity.† Leucine is a potent metabolic regulator in protein synthesis. The high ratio of leucine to isoleucine and valine is what makes this formula unique. This product contains 100 percent free-form branched chain amino acids.†

- › Max BCAA helps the body retain amino acids†
- › Branched chain amino acids build proteins†
- › Exclusive delivery system for more effective absorption†
