HELPS SUPPORT HEALTHY CIRCULATION[†]

Help support healthy circulation from head to toe!

Maintaining a healthy circulation is important.

Your heart, brain, skin—even exercise performance—all depend on a healthy circulatory system for support. But as you age, your blood vessels may become less flexible and less able to expand when needed to keep circulation running smoothly.

Fortunately, there is nature's unexpected superfruit—cocoa. Specifically, the phytonutrients called cocoa flavanols found naturally in the cocoa bean. In fact, the secret to the health benefits of dark chocolate is in the cocoa flavanols.

CocoaVia™ supplement is made using our patented Cocoapro® process that preserves the natural flavanols from cocoa bean through extract to deliver them in the highest concentration possible. Cocoa flavanols are scientifically proven to help support healthy circulation by helping your arteries stay flexible at any age!
