• NUTRITION INFORMATION: Vitamin C is a powerful antioxidant that stimulates the production of key antibodies that are essential for maximum immune support.* It promotes a healthy immune system all year round and reinforces immunity during the winter season.* While it is best known to boost the immune system, adding Vitamin C as a daily supplement has many additional health benefits:

- Helps maintain blood pressure levels already within the normal range*
- Helps maintain cholesterol levels that are already within the normal range*
- Promotes collagen production, which is essential for healthy cardiovascular function*
- Contributes to healthy gums and oral health*
