

MealPlex is a great addition to any diet for supporting the body in stabilizing blood sugar levels, providing essential nutrients for increased lean muscle mass, revving up metabolism and improving overall health and nutrition. It is loaded with digestive enzymes necessary for complete breakdown and assimilation and electrolytes that replenish and rebuild energy.

PERFECTLY BALANCED

PROTEIN TO CARBOHYDRATES RATIO

DIRECTIONS:

- Time-Released Protein Mix
- Supports Muscle Growth
- Supports Weight Loss
- Great Tasting
- Low Glycemic
- Whey + Pea Protein

Contains EDS® (Enzyme Delivery System): A blend of enzymes and co-factors to improve nutrient benefits.

For an added boost of amino acids, electrolytes and flavor, try mixing with Professional Botanical's Momentum powder by adding one scoop of each powder into water. MealPlex can also be added to fruit smoothies, stirred into yogurt or combined with milk for a healthy, great tasting vanilla shake.
