- Bioidentical enzymes for digestive and systemic support
- Helps digest proteins, carbohydrates and fats
- Maximum strength pancreatin – for critical immune support*

The enzymes in Tri-Zyme™ are most similar to your body's own natural enzymes – allowing them to work effectively for both digestive and systemic support.*

Recommendations: 1 tablet with each meal, or as desired. Take with meals for ultimate digestive benefits. Take on an empty stomach for systemic support (arteries, joints, muscles).*
If pregnant or nursing, consult a healthcare practitioner before using.
