

Doctor's Best PQQ with BioPQQ® provides pyrroloquinoline quinone (PQQ). PQQ is a polyphenol with antioxidant properties that's important for energy production and supports nerve cells and cognitive functions.*

PQQ also stimulates the growth of new mitochondria even in aging cells. Mitochondria are the cell's power producers, generating about 90% of the energy for physical and mental functions.*

Helps support mitochondrial biogenesis and function*

Helps support cardiovascular health and cellular energy*

Helps support cognitive functions*
