

*I-Vegiehills is a nutrient dense green food, rich in anti oxidant, vitamins, minerals & iron content. I-Vegiehills is an easy way to fill the nutritional gap created by personal preference and seasonal availability. Spinach and Barleygrass are considered to be rich in iron and Beetroot is rich in anthocyanins which are considered to have anti oxidant properties. I-Vegiehills may help support healthy immune system and contributes to cell integrity. Digestive enzymes are considered to help break down polymeric macromolecules into their smaller building blocks in order to facilitate their absorption by the body.
