The human body is remarkable in its ability to neutralize toxins, chemicals, and waste products. They are broken down and converted into less toxic forms—eliminated by the liver, intestine, and kidneys. Detox Basics is designed to support a healthy liver and intestinal function to protect against oxidative stressors.*

Detox Basics provides your body with the nutrients it needs to help neutralize, prepare, and convert toxins for transport and elimination on a daily basis.*

Each convenient, single serving Detox Basics packet is formulated with scientifically studied ingredients that:

- Support gut health to combat endotoxins*
- Support liver health and toxin elimination*
- Contain shelf-stable probiotics and prebiotics to support balance of the microbiome and healthy detoxification*
- Supports circulatory, glandular and immune systems*
