Calm-Pro™ contains Suntheanine® L-Theanine, the most abundant amino acid found in green tea, and helps induce a feeling of serenity and relaxation without drowsiness.* L-Theanine naturally stimulates activity in the brain known as alpha waves.* Alpha waves are associated with a relaxed but alert mental state, which can help improve learning performance and concentration. Also helps to reduce stress and nervous tension, which can support an improved quality of sleep.*

The award-winning and research-supported Suntheanine® brand is a biologically active and isomerically pure form of L-Theanine.
