

NuSera® is formulated in a great-tasting, chocolate flavored chewable to help promote a feeling of calmness and relaxation during times of stress. This science-based formula features a clinically effective dosage of Lactium®—a bioactive decapeptide—which research suggests promotes a healthy response to stress. In clinical studies, this unique ingredient was shown to boost the body's ability to manage stress, which is important for maintaining a healthy lifestyle.*

Directions: Chew one tablet during times of stress or as directed by your healthcare provider. Do not exceed two tablets per day.
