

joint lubrication

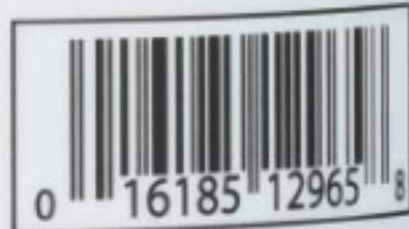

Hyaluronic Acid (HA) is an essential component of skin hydration, eye health, and joint fluidity. HA is found in virtually every tissue of the body and is able to hold 1,000 times its weight in water, allowing it to provide tissue hydration and water transport between cells.* NeoCell's Hyaluronic Acid delivers 120 mg of bioavailable Hyaluronic Acid in one small, easy-to-take pill.

Clinical Results: NeoCell's vegan Hyaluronic Acid is clinically shown to improve the skin's moisture content within six weeks.†

SUGGESTED USE: Take one (1) capsule daily.

†Based on a 2009 placebo-controlled clinical study.
