

Giving your joints the fluidity and lubrication they need has never been so easy - or so delicious.

NeoCell Joint Bursts™ combine Collagen Type 2, Turmeric, and Hyaluronic Acid in a soft chew that is bursting with juicy tropical fruit flavor for targeted joint support.*

Collagen Type 2 is the main structural protein of joint cartilage and is what provides strength and cushioning in joints.

Hyaluronic Acid is the primary component of synovial fluid which lubricates the joints.

Turmeric is shown to promote healthy inflammatory response.*

These three powerhouse ingredients work synergistically to support flexibility, mobility and comfort. Chew on this and take a comfortable step in the right direction.*
