Discussion: Resveratrol is a compound found in various berries (cranberry, blueberry, grapes) and herbs recognized for its beneficial properties. Resveratrol is formulated with AOR's patent pending Vsoftgel™ technology, to provide greater absorption for this fat-soluble nutrient.*

Directions: Take 1 softgel per day with or without food, or as directed by a qualified health care practitioner.

Warning: Consult your physician prior to use if you're pregnant or lactating, if you have a medical condition or if you're taking prescription medication.
