

PATENTED, AWARD WINNING HEART HEALTH FORMULA

Ultimate Red Yeast Rice is a synergistic 3-in-1 formula that utilizes the patented VESIsorb® colloidal droplet system for superior absorption and bioavailability. Each biologically active ingredient has been carefully selected to work together in this patented formula for maximum heart health benefits. Coenzyme Q10 supports antioxidant activity and cardiovascular function.* Organic Red Yeast Rice's naturally derived extract has been used for centuries in eastern medicine for promoting heart health properties. Cholesstrinol™, a patented combination of PMF-source® citrus polymethoxylated flavones & TocoSource® palm tocotrienols, has been clinically proven to support the body's ability to balance healthy cholesterol levels naturally.*
