Find the Cause

To accurately select the correct course of treatment the specific cause must be determined.

Utilize the Healing Power of Nature

This healing power exists in each person and is also found in the gifts provided by nature as the nutrients in our foods from a vast array of sources.

The Principles of Naturopathy

Treat the Whole Person

Treatments solely focused on symptom relief may not address all the factors as they relate to the core issues. Many components can impact an individual's health concerns, going beyond what appears to be the direct causes.

Do No Harm

By providing nutrients, not drugs or other treatments, the body has what it needs to re-establish the health of the individual without any 'cost'.

Product best if used within 3 years of MFG Date (Date of manufacture).
