DESCRIPTION

Also known as Rou Cong Rong, Cistanche is a multi-faceted herb that had numerous uses in ancient China. Historically, it was thought to support energy levels by tonifying yang energy. Therefore, it was commonly used to support healthy libido, aging, immune system health, digestion, kidney function and joint health.*

Our water soluble herbal extracts are best mixed in juice or a smoothie, although mixing in water is perfectly fine if you can tolerate the taste.

STORAGE

Cool dry place, out of direct sunlight.
