20:1 CONCENTRATED EXTRACT

DESCRIPTION

Kudzu is an extremely fast-growing vine. It has a long history of use in Traditional Chinese Medicine. It contains isoflavones, which are believed to support both male and female health. Traditionally, Kudzu has been used for relief of minor headaches and the promotion of joint health. Kudzu is believed to aid the liver in processing alcohol. Kudzu helps your body rehydrate after an evening out.*

Our water soluble herbal extracts are best mixed in juice or a smoothie, although mixing in water is perfectly fine if you can tolerate the taste.
