

ProEnzol® Fiber DigestEnz™ provides a blend of non-animal derived enzymes with extra Cellulase and alpha-Galactosidase to assist in the digestion of foods high in difficult-to-break down plant fiber and raffinose-series oligosaccharides, helping to relieve occasional gastrointestinal discomfort.*

DIRECTIONS: Take one (1) capsule at the beginning of any meal or snack containing fiber, or as directed by your healthcare professional.

CAUTION: If you are pregnant, nursing, have a serious medical condition, or take any medications, consult your healthcare professional before use. Use only if tamper-evident seal is unbroken. Store tightly closed in a cool, dry place. Keep out of reach of children.
