

Cacao Alchemy™ combines organic raw Ecuadorian Arriba Criollo heirloom cacao powder (chocolate in its purest form) with nutrient-dense superfoods carob, lucuma, and mesquite pod. These foods act as natural whole-food, low-glycemic sweeteners to help balance out the beneficial bitter element of the antioxidant-rich cacao. Known as the “Food of the Gods” by the ancient Mayan culture, cacao was thought to be a sacred and medicinal food.*

Our adaptogenic tonic blend contains both whole roots (ashwagandha and astragalus) and pure extracts (schisandra, reishi, cordyceps, and chaga). Adaptogens help boost the body’s innate ability to cope with stress and fatigue, thus promoting general vitality and well-being.* Adaptogens are extremely beneficial allies for maintaining a healthy body and mind in today’s modern world.*

Suggested Use: 1 teaspoon per day. Try adding to your favorite organic, plant-based “milk” (hot or cold, with optional sweetener of choice). Consume with conscious, positive intent.
