

Essential vitamins and antioxidants in every bite, for every human.

A multivitamin for a multitude of things. Like extra energy, a boost in mood and memory, maintenance of muscle strength and bodily functions.

REAL FRUIT PLUS PLANT BASED VITAMINS.

Fun fact: Llamas don't bite. But you should. Unlike regular gummies, ours have zero synthetics. Each bite is made from real fruit plus essential plant-based vitamins. Nothing silly added. Read the ingredient list. See?

We slow-cook them to preserve the vitamins along with their natural phytochemicals so your body can absorb them better. It's Mother Earth's work, that we've made more efficient. We can't take all the credit.

They're delicious too, so you don't have to sacrifice taste for health, or health for taste. You won't even notice there's no sweeteners, added sugar cane, or artificials.

PIECES OF NUTRITION & PEACE OF MIND.
