

FLORASSIST®

FLORASSIST® Winter Immune Support is a clinically studied blend of five probiotic strains and a specific pre-biotic to promote a healthy immune response during the winter months.* Packaged in convenient stick-packs, this formula is designed for on-the-go seasonal use. Just mix the unflavored powder into a glass of water, smoothie, or your favorite beverage.

Read the entire label and follow the directions carefully prior to use.

DIRECTIONS: Mix one (1) stick pack daily with water or beverage of choice to taste. Drink with or without food, or as recommended by a healthcare practitioner.
