The key botanical in Adrenal Response is Sensoril®. Sensoril is an extraordinary extract of the revered Ayurvedic botanical, Ashwagandha (Withania somnifera). Sensoril is produced from the roots of plants less than two years old, using a water-based process that guarantees optimal concentrations of several key constituents. These constituents include: withanolide glycosides, oligosaccharides and withaferin-A in concentrations clinically proven in double-blind, placebo-controlled clinical trials.
