

Kill It Pre-Workout Fruit Punch

When it comes to your pre-workout, you don't want another product that is overloaded with stimulants yet offers little else. Kill It was created to give you enough energy and focus to push through your toughest workouts and at the same time power the pump as well as increase strength and improve performance. This makes Kill It a great first-time pre-workout as well as the right choice for bodybuilders that want less caffeine and more performance.

How to use Kill It

Mix 1 scoop with 8-10oz of water and consume on an empty stomach 30 minutes before training. Use only on training days. Do not exceed more than one serving per day.
