

Liquid Health™ Hydrosoluble CoQ10 delivers:

- Rapid dissolution of CoQ10 for increased bioavailability
- Added cardiovascular support provided by Hawthorne Berry Extract
- Synergistic antioxidant support of all natural Vitamin C & E
- Delicious, easy to take liquid form

Coenzyme Q10 is a naturally occurring substance in your body that produces energy to fight free radical damage.

Our innovative Hydrosoluble formula has been specially created to increase the dissolution and absorption of CoQ10 into the bloodstream. Combined with the synergistic antioxidant properties of fresh blueberry juice, goji berry extract, and Vitamins C & E. Hawthorne Berry Extract and CoQ10 have long been used as cardiovascular regulators and for heart function support.

Liquid Health™ has been a leader in supplements for over a decade, and is at the forefront with groundbreaking products to this day.
