RESILIENCE by ATP Science: If it's good enough for the Baby Jesus – it's good enough for you! Frankincense, Myrrh, and the gold...of turmeric - yeah that was a bit of a stretch but just go with it. We have taken some of the best, most effective and well-studied ingredients from ancient texts and traditions and combined them to help support your first line of defense and maintain healthy resilience. Resilience is the teaspoon of concrete you need every day to keep the fluffy-little-puppy tough!*
