OAT MAMA

Our B. Happy by Oat Mama Immunity Tea is backed by the power of organic elderberries and echinacea, the traditional immunity-boosting herbs that have been used to fight colds and flu since ancient Egyptian times. Tulsi, referred to in Ayurvedic medicine as the Mother of Herbs, has a calming effect on the body, helping with inflammation, stress, and balancing the immune system. Orange peel packs a Vitamin C punch and helps to balance out the light blackberry and cinnamon flavor, making this the tea you will want to enjoy all year long.
