SystemLS[™] Greens Organic Superfood

SystemLS[™] Greens is a natural, organic superfood that contains a powerful blend of probiotics which include Lactobacillus casei, Lactobacillus plantarum, Lactobacillus acidophilus, Bifidobacterium breve, Bifidobacterium longum and Lactobacillus rhamnosus to aid in digestion. This powerful superfood enhances digestive function by cleansing the digestive system and helps to rebuild the body's microbiome. A healthy microbiome in the body can help boost metabolism, help eliminate cravings, increase energy, help support a healthy immune system and help support weight loss.

Powered by potent antioxidants, SystemLS[™] Greens Organic Superfood boosts the immune system for maximum health benefits, so you can feel renewed and refreshed for the long haul. Its ability to stave off pathogens helps protect the body from free radicals---enabling you to fight aging with ease.

With its significant amount of quality nutrients, SystemLS[™] Greens Organic Superfood will provide a healthy immune system, which produces quality energy---enabling you to perform high work output, whether in the gym, at home, or in the workforce.
