

Hemavol contains the world's most advanced nitric oxide producing compounds. The cutting edge ingredients initialize two critical steps for massive pumps and cell swelling plasma volumization:

AUGMENTS THE ACTIONS OF THE NITRIC OXIDE SYNTHASE ENZYME
RAISES THE PLASMA CONCENTRATION OF KEY COMPOUNDS
NEEDED TO PRODUCE N.O.

Hemavol literally forces your muscle cells to swell with blood and nutrients creating the most extreme pump you have ever experienced.

Suggested Use: Hemavol is so powerful and so precisely dosed that in order to achieve maximum plasma volumization, it should only be taken on training days and no more than 4 times per week. For best results, drink 24-32 ounces of water with each serving. Consume one serving (10 capsules) approximately 30-45 minutes before your workout. Another option is to divide the serving into 2 separate doses of 5 capsules once in the morning upon waking, and another 5 capsule serving 30-45 minutes before your workout.
