

This product is an innovative dietary supplement formulated for people seeking to improve oxygen flow for optimum life-style support. It contains standardized Ginkgo biloba extract in amounts utilized by researchers in significant studies documenting Ginkgo's ability to improve oxygen flow to the brain and extremities.* Ginkgo also has natural antioxidant qualities, making it helpful for scavenging free radicals in the human body. The unique blend of synergistic herbs in this product makes it popular with busy seniors, active college students and office workers.
